

MEET THE TEACHER

Linda Craziano

THE BASICS!

Hi my name is Linda, but that's not my real name!! That's a secret, but if you find out, you win a prize!

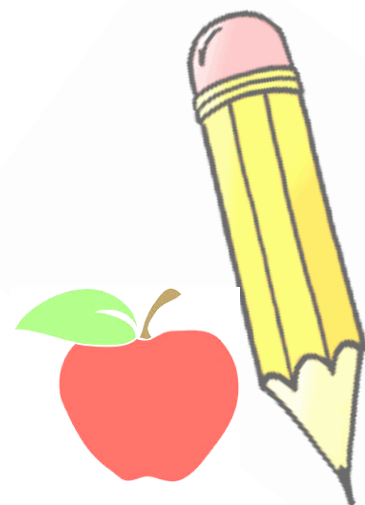

I have worked at Accademia Britannica for 12 years and I have been the Director of Studies for 6 years.

Teaching is a passion for me and my reward is seeing my students progress. Every little achievement is one giant step in the right direction.

MY CHILDHOOD!

I grew up in Toronto, Canada in a bilingual household, which gave me greater insight into how languages are learned.

My family is of Italian origin and I was brought up with the traditions of Molise, which include pizza minestra, and cavatelli.

MY EDUCATION!

B.A. Honours Degree- Foreign Languages and Literature

Certificate of Language Teaching for Adults

Director of Studies Certificate
